DETAILED ACTION

Specification

The following guidelines illustrate the preferred layout for the specification of a utility application. These guidelines are suggested for the applicant's use.

Arrangement of the Specification

As provided in 37 CFR 1.77(b), the specification of a utility application should include the following sections in order. Each of the lettered items should appear in upper case, without underlining or bold type, as a section heading. If no text follows the section heading, the phrase "Not Applicable" should follow the section heading:

- (a) TITLE OF THE INVENTION.
- (b) CROSS-REFERENCE TO RELATED APPLICATIONS.
- (c) STATEMENT REGARDING FEDERALLY SPONSORED RESEARCH OR DEVELOPMENT.
- (d) THE NAMES OF THE PARTIES TO A JOINT RESEARCH AGREEMENT.
- (e) INCORPORATION-BY-REFERENCE OF MATERIAL SUBMITTED ON A COMPACT DISC.
- (f) BACKGROUND OF THE INVENTION.
 - (1) Field of the Invention.
 - (2) Description of Related Art including information disclosed under 37 CFR 1.97 and 1.98.
- (g) BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE INVENTION.
- (h) BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE SEVERAL VIEWS OF THE DRAWING(S).
- (i) DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF THE INVENTION.
- (j) CLAIM OR CLAIMS (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (k) ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (l) SEQUENCE LISTING (See MPEP § 2424 and 37 CFR 1.821-1.825. A "Sequence Listing" is required on paper if the application discloses a nucleotide or amino acid sequence as defined in 37 CFR 1.821(a) and if the required "Sequence Listing" is not submitted as an electronic document on compact disc).

The above listed headings are suggested for use by applicant.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 2-6 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 11 there is no antecedent basis for the "die/punch elements" recited at line 18, the "upper dies" recited at line 21, the "lower punches" recited at line 22 and the "die holes" recited at line 23.

The recitation in the claim of "at least one" is not a positive recitation of having plural elements, dies, punches or holes.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 5 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Menzin in view of Dantlgraber.

There is disclosed in Menzin an apparatus for making puffed crackers, comprising: a heatable stationary upper mold plate having extending therefrom at least one downwardly directed upper die element 33, the upper mold plate being adjustably fixed to an upper frame 24; a heatable lower mold plate having an upwardly directed die or punch 35 element arranged in registry with the upper die element, the lower mold plate being movable upwardly and downwardly relative to the upper mold plate and having a carrier member 37 movable therewith; a heatable intermediate mold plate 34 disposed between the upper mold plate and the lower mold plate and having at least one die hole arranged in registry with the upper die element and the lower punch element; means 58 for driving and expanding the heated, the driving means including a hydraulic cylinder having a drive shaft connected to the carrier member and disposed vertically in line with a longitudinal axis of the apparatus.

Art Unit: 3742

Dantlgraber discloses that it is known in the art to use a hydraulic piston cylinder having stepped interior chambers of different volume, to move a mold member.

It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to substitute the hydraulic cylinder of Menzin with the one disclosed in Dantlgraber, in order to provide an alternative means for driving the lower heatable mold plate and punch element.

Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Menzin in view of Dantlgraber as applied to claims above, and further in view of Pels.

Pels discloses that it is known in the art to provide means 11 for adjusting and controlling an expansion volume for a pressure baked product within a heatable mold.

It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to provide the device of Menzin, as modified by Dantlgraber, with the adjusting means taught in Pels, in order to adjust the expansion volume of the baked product.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 2, 4 and 6 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
